SUPPOSE we stir around a bit,
And get things in their places,
To show a comely front to those,
Who come to see the races,
That in their memoranda book,
They'll jot it plainly down,
Our "seven acre city" is
A neat and clean town.

KENTUCKY has a river boundary of 813 miles.

A STEAM ferryboat is talked of at Vanceburg.

THE saloon keepers of Ripley, have decided to respect the Sunday law.

THE river fell about twelve inches yesterday, but is rising again to-day.

THE bones of a mastodon were dug up near Point Pleasant, Ohio, last week.

A CASE of smallpox was reported at Ripley, this week, but the report proves to have been without foundation.

Wool is quoted at 20 cents a pound in Shelby county, and in Bourbon at 25 cents.

KENTUCKY produces eighty per cent. of all the hemp grown in the United States.

THE circuit court in Lewis county will begin on the second Monday in June instead of the first.

THERE are twenty-five prisoners in the Lexington jail and five of them are under sentence of death.

GEO. FISCHER, of Flemingsburg, has invented an adding machine. The Mason County Historical Society has one that we venture to say will double discount it.

THE steamer Thompson is now commanded by Capt. Tom Redden. She is as popular as ever, and is enjoying a prosperous business. It is a pleasure to travel by this boat.

No town of its size in the west is better supplied with merchandise than Maysville is just now. The stocks are all large and our merchants are ready to make liberal arrangements with buyers.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

Joshua Purden and Lyda Wills,
Clayton Penny and Mary E. Peters,
J. W. Winters and Ella Hare,
J. W. Fulton and Helen Johnson.

THE Richmond (Va.) State in speaking of a convict in the Virginia penitentiary confined there for forgery and bigamy, says:

Instead of being named either Thomas A. Marvin or General Budlong A. Morton, his real name is Alfred T. Merritt and he was born in or in the neighborhood of Maysville, Ky.

THERE will be Divine service at the Church of the Nativity this evening at 7:30 o'clock and to-morrow (Friday) night at 7:30 p. m. Right Rev. T. U. Dudley, D. D., assistant Bishop of Kentucky, will preach at each service and confer the rite of confirmation Friday evening.

THE NEW JAIL.

A Building to be put up that Will Cost $35,000—The Dennis McGregor Property on Third Street Selected as a Site—E. J. Hodgson, of Indianapolis, Employed as Architect.

The magistrates composing the court of claims to-day decided to buy a site for the new jail the Dennis McGregor property on Third street, formerly occupied by Charles Phister. The lot fronts 99 feet. The price is $8,000 to be paid either in county bonds or money, as desired. It was decided to erect a jail building, the cost of which, including the jailer's residence and yard walls should not exceed $35,000. E. J. Hodgson, of Indianapolis, was employed as the architect.

To provide for the expense of erecting the new jail, it was decided to issue county bonds to the amount of $45,000 due and payable in ten years, but redeemable in five years if the county should so elect. These bonds are to bear six per cent. interest.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

For One Week.

Gabriel's Cosmopolitan corps of celebrities, will appear at Washington Opera House, for one week, beginning on Monday next, including a matinee Saturday afternoon. Every member of the troupe is said to be an artist of undoubted merit and of well established reputation in his particular specialties. We are assured by the manager of the company, that the entertainment will be of a character that cannot possibly offend the most fastidious taste. The programme will be highly amusing and entertaining.

THE accident by which Mr. John Huff lost his life occurred late Tuesday afternoon, near Wyoming. The stage was going down the long hill on the Fleming side of Licking River and upsetting rolled over and over to the bottom and into the stream. Mr. Huff was crushed beneath the vehicle and instantly killed. There were no passengers in the stage at the time. Mr. Huff was about sixty years of age and leaves a wife and several children. A few days before his death he decided to leave the road and advertised the stage line for sale.

THE smallpox has entirely disappeared from Lewis county. The Jordan family and others in the neighborhood afflicted with the disease, have recovered, and the houses in which they lived have been burned as well as all infected clothing.

For insurance of any kind—life, fire or accident—in good reliable companies, apply to M. F. MARSH, Court street.

MESSRS. A. J. EGNEW & Co., have just received by rail and river a shipment of 137,000 gallons of very superior glazed stoneware from the pottery at New Brighton, Pa. This ware is smoothly made, well glazed, neat in appearance and very desirable for domestic use. As it has been bought in so large a quantity, it can be sold at the lowest prices. It is the first shipment of pottery ware ever made to Maysville by rail, and is probably the largest lot ever received here. Go and look at it.

MARRIED.

At the residence of Charles E. Dimmitt May 11, 1882, Miss MATTIE DIMMITT to Mr. R. H. Newell, all of this county.
